Licence Details:

It is mandatory that the driver and navigator show their current valid drivers licence to the officials at scrutineering prior to the event. Failure to do so will result in the entry not being able to start the event.

Other equipment:

Each vehicle will be inspected prior to the event and there will be a check to see that each car has a snatch strap, extension strap, at least two heavy duty shackles, a shovel, an axe, a first aid kit and a fire extinguisher. Failure to have these on board and properly secured will result in the entry vehicle not being able to start.

A GPS will be required for the navigation in this event.

It is strongly recommended that a compass (separate to any GPS) be included

Entries:

Entries Open: October 16th, 2006

Entries Close: January 5th, 2007.

Entries are to be mailed to:

Pro Comp Pajero Challenge 2007
C/- Ray Horton
14 Buller Drive
Glen Waverley Vic 3150.

A maximum of 50 vehicles will be allowed and entries will be accepted by the following method:
10 places will be reserved for Pajero Club members

The following 25 places will be from other affiliated clubs, on a first-in basis (subject to a maximum of 5 per club).

Past competitors will then receive an acceptance of entry. If the number of past competitors exceeds the number of remaining places available, the entries will be granted to competitors who have provided the greatest number of years supporting the event.

The remaining places will be determined by ballot from all remaining entries. This will be drawn after the close of entries.

Applications must be complete in all details, signed and it must include the entry fee, and proof of current financial membership to Four Wheel Drive Victoria or an affiliated club. Fee for unsuccessful entrants will be refunded after the completion of the draw.

Fee must be included with the application. Any entry received without the appropriate fee will be rejected.

Any entrant who withdraws from the event less than Two weeks before the commencement of the event will result in no fee being refunded.

Any entrant who withdraws more than Two weeks before the commencement of the event will be entitled to a 50% refund.
